Enclosure No. Encs 2

Sir,

I have the honour to state that on seeing a notification in Bengal Police Gazette of the 5th September 1919 amending the rules about the maintenance of the village crime note-book, I called for the opinion of Mr. Abdul Khader, then Superintendent of C.I.D. about the adoption of the amendments here and have since consulted Mr. Hayes also.

The following amendments are, in our view, useful:-

(1) That the village crime note-book should be a confidential document that should not be exhibited in Court without the permissionof the Inspector-General (vide amended rule 201 of Bengal, page 54 of the Gazette - marked in red ink.)

(2) The addition of some more offences in rule 299 of the Police Manual. (vide amended rule 206 of Bengal, pages 55 & 56 of Gazette - marked in red ink.)

(3) An explanation to rule 300 of the Police Manual. (vide note to amended rule

(4) Noting in Col. 3 of the crime Register (part II of Form 50) some details of the offence. (vide amended rule 201 of Bengal, page 60 of the Gazette - marked in red ink)

(5) A foot-note to part II of form 50 of the Police manual as an explanation to Col. 3 (vide amended rule 201 of Bengal, page 61 of the Gazette - marked in red ink.)

I solicit the sanction of Government to these amendments and to the enclosed addenda and corrigenda slip.

The Bengal Police Gazette under advertance is enclosed for reference and kind return when done with.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

-6-20. Inspector General of Police,
